

▶ HUNGARY – HIGH QUALITY EDUCATION IN THE HEART OF EUROPE

Studying in Hungary means to study in Europe. Hungary joined the European Union more than a decade ago and it is also part of the Schengen Area. In terms of higher education, the most significant European effort was to ensure comparable, compatible and coherent higher education systems throughout Europe. As a result of this initiative, the so-called Bologna Process was launched and the European Higher Education Area was established – both of which Hungary is a member of. Those who decide to study in Hungary can take advantage of the excellent quality of its education and be part of its European and global networks!
